THE PROMISES OF PROP 58
Building a Dual Language Movement

Saturday, April 22, 2017
8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Myriam Met
Lily Wong Filmore
Ruby Takanishi
Bobbi Crizia Houtchens

Cost:
$100 (Students: $50)
Including:
- All sessions and plenaries
- Breakfast
- Lunch
- Hors d'oeuvres/reception
- Parking (Structure 12)

Location:
San Diego State University
Storm Hall West
Auditorium, Room 12

Payment and Registration Information at:
https://larc.sdsu.edu/professional-development
Check, P.O., or Credit Card Accepted

For more information:
Alan Svidal
asvidal@mail.sdsu.edu
(619) 594-5810

Audience:
- Pre-K to 16 educators
- Principals
- Superintendents
- Administrators
- Instructional coaches
- EL/DLL LOTE Specialists
- Advocates for immigrant children and educational equity

Strand 1:
World Language Connections

Strand 2:
Integrated and Designated Language Development

Strand 3:
Dual Language Instruction

Strand 4:
Leadership and Advocacy

Strand 5:
Assessment

Strand 6:
Early Childhood Biliteracy Development

Research Fair:
Poster Presentations by Teacher-Scholars

*Strand/Poster sessions will be held in Storm Hall building, Second floor

Optional leadership forum/reception @ the San Diego County Office of Education (room 306)
Friday April 21, 2017, 3:30 pm to 5:30 pm

Myriam Met: “Celebrating our Past and Inspiring the Future: The Promise of Dual Language Education”.

Lily Wong Filmore, Ruby Takanishi, Bobbi Crizia Houtchens
(Members of the National Academy Consensus Committee discuss their 2/28/17 report): “Promoting the Educational Success of Children and Youth Learning English: Promising Futures”.

Moderator: Mary Waldron

Optional  leadership forum/reception @ the San Diego County Office of Education (room 306)
Friday April 21, 2017, 3:30 pm to 5:30 pm

Audience:
- Pre-K to 16 educators
- Principals
- Superintendents
- Administrators
- Instructional coaches
- EL/DLL LOTE Specialists
- Advocates for immigrant children and educational equity