

Dual Language Teacher Preparation Pathways (Part 1)

The U.S. Department of Education’s Office of English Language Acquisition (OELA) has developed this outreach sheet to provide speakers with sample communications for an upcoming webinar series focused on dual language education. Please contact us at askncela@manhattanstrategy.com, if you have any questions.

Webinar Announcement

Dual Language Teacher Preparation Pathways \(Part 1\) - Wednesday, May 08, 2024 | 2:00 p.m. ET

During the webinar, the panelists will share an overview of the six Educators for a Multilingual Multicultural America (EMMA) Standards, including their essential competencies and the aim to address current needs for DLBE teacher preparation and practice. The session will illustrate a brief history of the Standards’ development, the rationale for their format, and their research-based constructs. The presenters will explain structures regarding accreditation parameters for many institutions of higher education as well as diverse ways in which the Standards may shape professional learning for in- and pre-service DLBE teachers. Lastly, the presenters will describe the development of the organization [EMMA] that will be housed with Dual Language Education of New Mexico.
